)	MATERIAL WITNESS

)	Time: 3:45 p.m.

Defendant, CARLOS SAAVEDRA, by and through his counsel of record, Mark F. Adams hereby submits, at this Court's direction, this additional brief in support of his position that material witness, Nuria Christina Ramirez, should not be released until her trial and/or motion hearing testimony can be adequately preserved consistent with Mr. Saavedra's right to the effective assistance of counsel. Further, Mr. Saavedra remains convinced that his rights to confront and to cross-examine this witness can not be adequately and meaningfully acquitted without the physical presence of the witness in court before the trier of fact. In support of these facts, Mr. Saavedra hereby incorporates as though set forth fully herein, his reply and opposition to the motion for videotaped deposition filed on February 14, 2008 as docket entry 17, co-defendant's objection to the release of the material witness filed on February 15, 2008 as

1 docket entry 18, the transcript of the hearing before the Magistrate Judge on February 22, 2 2008¹, including the objection of the Assistant United States Attorney responsible for the 3 prosecution of this case, the defense notice of emergency appeal and request for de novo
4 review, this brief, the Order for videotape depositions [sic] of the material witness, all files and 5 records in this case docket, and on such other and further matters as shall be presented to this 6 court prior to or at the time of the hearing.

7 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

8 On February 22, 2008, on the opposed motion of the material witness and 9 following hearing before the Magistrate Judge assigned to the matter, an order was entered 10 directing the deposition of the material witness, Nuria Christina Ramirez. The order directs the 11 videotaping of a deposition and the release of the witness who will then presumably be 12 removed to El Salvador, albeit with a subpoena to attend the trial, notwithstanding the fact that 13 no trial date has been set.

14 DEFENSE OBJECTIONS

15 The defense objects and continues to object to this procedure for several reasons 16 in addition to those set forth in the first reply and opposition.

17 First, the defense is firmly convinced from prior experience that the videotaped 18 deposition is a poor and inadequate substitute for live witness testimony which absolutely does 19 not assure Mr. Saavedra's rights to confront and cross-examine the witnesses against him.

20 Second, unless and until all discovery is received and defense investigation is 21 completed, a deposition to preserve trial testimony is premature.

22 Third, unless and until final defense trial strategy is decided, meaningful cross-23 examination of this key witness is impossible. Counsel can only be prepared to examine this 24 witness if the Court establishes a firm discovery cut off date, allows sufficient preparation time, 25 and all counsel are in effect prepared to try the case.

26
27 ¹ A transcript of that hearing has been ordered and should be filed just prior to the 28 hearing on this matter presently scheduled as indicated above on March 6, 2008.

1 Fourth, the improper collusion between agencies of the government and the 2 material witness to create her unavailability is inappropriate and unnecessary given other 3 alternatives such as directing the Department of Homeland Security to show cause why this 4 witness cannot be released on conditions and allowed to remain within the United States prior 5 to trial and/or the immediate setting of a trial date. The Order for the deposition does provide 6 for a trial subpoena and travel documents to enter the United States for the trial, however, once 7 the witness is released, there is no mechanism to enforce that subpoena beyond the borders of 8 the United States. This provision of the Order is an empty gesture unlikely to ensure the 9 presence of the witness at trial.

10 Fifth, this material witness' motion does not contain a sufficient showing of 11 hardship nor an adequate demonstration of the legal standards established by Torres Ruiz v.
12 United States District Court, 120 F.3d 933 (9th Cir., 1997) to warrant a deposition and her 13 immediate release. Indeed, counsel for the material witness states only that "[h]er family is 14 forced to suffer during her detention and she would like to return home". At the hearing before 15 the Magistrate Judge, counsel for the witness, for the first time, notified the court and counsel 16 that the witness has five children between the ages of three and fourteen years of age who are 17 staying with unfamiliar family members and which is causing hardship for the witness. These 18 statements simply do not ring true in view of the fact that, according to the discovery received 19 so far, the witness, Nuria Christina Ramirez, left her home in Puerto la Libertad, El Salvador on 20 November 16, 2007, traveled to the international border with the intention to illegally enter the 21 United States, and travel to Pennsylvania to live, and presumably work, with her mother who 22 was paying for her passage². Clearly, this witness intended to reside in the United States 23 illegally for some significant period of time, work here, and send money home to her children.
24 When that plan was interrupted by her apprehension, her inability to send money to family
25 admittedly must cause concern for the witness. However, alternatives exist to allow the witness

26
27 ² Attached hereto as Exhibit A is the I-213 Record of Deportable/Inadmissible Alien 28 prepared at the time of Ms. Ramirez' apprehension.

1 to be immediately released in a manner allowing for her to remain within the United States 2 pending trial.

3 CONCLUSION

4 For the foregoing reasons, Mr. Saavedra respectfully requests that this Court
5 vacate the Order for videotaped deposition and voluntary removal of the material witness Nuria
6 Christina Ramirez.

7 Respectfully submitted,
